Show Description:

Snowbirds, Harold and Irene Torgelson, who winter in Florida at their Casa Flamingo Condo, promise their daughter and son-in-law that they will bring their visiting granddaughter home to Minnesota by Christmas. But, when a snow storm socks in the entire upper mid-west, returning her for the holidays becomes an impossibility. To make matters worse, they had already sublet their condo to Irene's cousin and husband, Louise and Les, for the two weeks they planned to be in Minnesota. With nowhere to go, Irene and Harold are ill-fated to spend Christmas in Florida with morose relatives who don't much like Christmas, kids, or them! Expect major hilarity and great family fun in this, the Seasons Dinner Theatre's 23rd original holiday musical comedy.
